Press Release

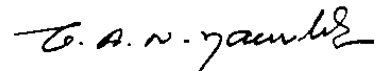

BSNL Casual and Contract Workers will participate in 7th September, 2010 strike

More than 50,000 Casual and Contract Workers in BSNL will participate in the one day strike on 7th September, 2010 called by the Central Trade Unions.

The Central Trade Unions have called for strike against spiraling prices, anti-worker policies, disinvestment of PSUs etc. They have also demanded for settlement of the issues of the unorganized workers.

BSNL Casual & Contract Workers will also participate in the strike. In addition to the demands cited above, the Federation is demanding regularization of Casual Workers, implementation of Social Security measures like EPF, Insurance etc. as also improvement in wages.

The Federation calls upon all the Casual & Contract Workers of BSNL to participate in the 7th September strike and make it successful.
