

Chennai convention- a massive show of unity and strength

The JAC convention held at Chennai on 09-07-2010 turned out to be a massive show of unity and strength. More than 1500 comrades from the nooks and corners of Tamil Nadu and Chennai circles participated in this convention. The sprawling Raja Annamalai Mandram, where the convention was held, could hardly accommodate the participants. This convention which was organized by both the Tamil Nadu as well as the Chennai Circle Unions, was presided over by Com.K.Govindarajan (BSNLEU), Com. R.Pattabiraman (NFTE), Com.S.Lingamurthy (FNTO), Com. M.Maran (TEPU), Com.A.Shanmugasundararajan (SNEA), Com.N.Veerapandian (AIBSNLEA) and Com.A.Chellapandian (TEPU). Com.S.Cellappa, Circle Secretary, BSNLEU, Tamil Nadu Circle welcomed all. Com.P.Abhimanyu, GS, BSNLEU, Com. G.L.Jogi, GS, SNEA, Com.Prahalad Rai, GS, AIBSNLEA, Com. K. Vallinayagam, GS, FNTO, Com.V.Subburaman, GS, TEPU, and other leaders of the JAC in Tamil Nadu and Chennai circle addressed the convention. In addition to these, central trade union leaders, viz., Com.A.Soundararajan (CITU), Com.D.Pandian (AITUC), Com.S.Kuppusamy (LPF) and Com. Elavari (INTUC) also addressed the convention and expressed their solidarity to the struggle to protect BSNL. In short, the Chennai convention is a morale booster for the JAC in it's struggle to strengthen BSNL.

Photos of JAC Convention at Chennai

Com. P. Abhimanyu, GS, BSNLEU addressing

Com. G.L. Jogi, GS, SNEA addressing

Com. K. Vallinayagam, GS, FNTO addressing

Leaders of JAC

Com. A. Soundararajan, CITU addressing

Com. D. Pandian, AITUC addressing

Com. S. Kuppusamy, LPF addressing

Leaders of JAC

A view of the audience