Sir,

Sub: - Down gradation of the Standing Committee – Requesting for restoration of the status – req.

Ref: - BSNL Lr.no. BSNL/39-5/SR/2011 dated 23.11.2011

With reference to the letter no. cited above, I wish to bring the following for favour of your kind intervention.

Standing Committee of the National Council is an important body which reviews the implementation of the decisions taken in the National Council. This body should have necessary powers, so that proper monitoring of the implementation of the decisions taken in the National Council can be done.

So far, GM/PGM (SR) has been heading this Standing Committee. But now, while reconstituting the committee after the 5th Membership verification, BSNL, vide letter no. cited under reference, has nominated the DGM (SR) to the committee. Since SR is the important section which coordinates between various sections, for the timely implementation of the decisions of the National Council, the presence of the GM/PGM (SR) in the Standing Committee is very essential.

We feel that the status of the Standing Committee has been down graded, since the GM/PGM (SR) is not there in the committee. This will affect the functioning of the Standing Committee, which will result in delay of the implementation of the decisions of the National Council.

Hence, I request you to kindly intervene and ensure that the SR section is represented by the GM/PGM.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely

(P. Abhimanyu)
General Secretary
